Dear Admiral Hillenkoetter:

During the past two years you have assisted us greatly by sending representatives of your Agency to speak to the students of our specialized intelligence class. It was a pleasure and a privilege for us to have both General M. W. Bright and [redacted]

This year we again would like to have a talk on the organization and functions of the Central Intelligence Agency. Naturally we would prefer to have you give this talk. We have tentatively scheduled this subject for two hours on 31 May 1950. I realize it is early for you to make a definite commitment but if we could have your general approval of the program, our planning would be greatly facilitated.

If you are unable to make the trip yourself, any one whom you consider qualified would be acceptable to us. [redacted] now assigned to your office, is a former instructor of our Intelligence Department and is thoroughly familiar with the nature and scope of the talk as scheduled. Either [redacted] [redacted] are suggested as possible alternates.

Faithfully yours,

M. L. EDDY
Lieutenant General, USA
Commandant
